HISTORIC INNS OF ROCKLAND MAINE'S
HOLIDAY HOUSE TOUR IN CONJUNCTION WITH THE ROCKLAND PUBLIC LIBRARY
OFFERS DAZZLING HOLIDAY DISPLAYS &
TREES ON NOVEMBER 27, 2010

Rockland, ME – Every year, the Historic Inns of Rockland cap off Festival of Lights with a Holiday House Inn-to-Inn Tour on the weekend after Thanksgiving. This year the Historic Inns are once again joining with the Friends of the Rockland Public Library and historic private homes nearby to jump start the spirit of the season. Participate in the tour and view historic inns and homes decked in all their holiday finery, while supporting Rockland's Public Library.

Once again this year, a festival of trees will follow the Holiday House Tour , with tabletop trees decorated by area businesses for auction at the library. The tour will be on Saturday, November 27, 2010 and the silent auction with refreshments and baked goods will follow from at the Rockland Public Library. Tickets to the Holiday House Tour are $10 per adult and free for children under 12,. Tickets can be purchased at the LimeRock Inn, Captain Lindsey House, Granite Inn, Berry Manor or the Rockland Public Library in advance or at any of the participating inns the day of the event. All proceeds will be donated to the Friends of the Rockland Public Library.

Plan to kick off the holidays with Rockland, Maine's weekend Festival of Lights Celebration, November 27-29, 2010. Santa will arrive by lobster boat, stores extend hours and a good old fashioned holiday parade, plus an Eat, Drink and Be Merry Saturday street celebration, along with the Historic Inns of Rockland's Holiday House Tour are highlights of the weekend. Plan to stay at one of the four Historic Inns of Rockland: Captain Lindsey House, LimeRock Inn, Berry Manor Inn, or Granite Inn. The Historic Inns of Rockland have wrapped it all up into one neat holiday getaway. Their Festival of Lights package includes:

- One night's accommodations at any of the four Historic Inns of Rockland and a full breakfast the next morning.
- Canned food to vote for your favorite float at the Festival of Lights Parade
- Two tickets to the Historic Holiday House Tour on Saturday, November 27th from 1-4 pm. and to the Silent Auction of Christmas Trees at the Public Library.
- Two tickets to the "Eat , Drink and Be Merry" event on Main Street.
- A Historic Inns of Rockland reusable shopping bag to help hold all the loot from your shopping and filled with wrapping paper, tape, ribbon and a package of gift tags

One-night packages range from $155-285 (double occupancy excluding tax); book a 2nd night and receive $25 in Mid-coast Money redeemable for a holiday shopping spree at participating merchants.

The Historic Inns of Rockland are a collection of four gracious inns, offering everything from casual to elegant accommodations. Each distinctly different in their features, the Historic Inns of Rockland will provide the ideal base from which to enjoy Mid-coast Maine's bounty. Rockland is easily accessible by car or air via Cape Air from Boston.
